

Vocabulary Victor might ask...

- What does this word tell us about the character/setting/atmosphere?
- Look at the sentence/passage _____ and circle a word/phrase that means the same as _____.
- Which word/phrase in the text shows that the main character is _____?
- Which words/phrases in the text show that the setting is _____?
- Which words/phrases in the text show that the atmosphere is _____?
- What word/synonym could you use instead of _____?
- What might ' _____ ' mean?
- Find/tick the word that has the same meaning/is closest in meaning to _____.
- Can _____ have more than one meaning?
- Can you think of a synonym/antonym for _____?

Rex Retriever might ask...

- Where is the story set?
- According to the text, how does the main character look/behave/speak?
- When is the story set?
- Where would you look to find information about _____?
- What did _____ do when _____?
- Where did _____ go?
- Where in the text would you find _____?
- Who are the key characters in the text?
- What happened at _____?
- What did _____ look like?
- Who was _____?
- Where did _____ live?
- Tick one box in each row to show whether each statement is true or false.
- Write three things that show...

Summarising Sheba might ask...

- What is the main theme/argument in this paragraph?
- What is the main message in this paragraph?
- Can you describe what has happened in this paragraph/chapter?
- Using _____ or fewer, could you write a new blurb for this book?
- Which is the most important message in this book?
- What have you learnt from this text?
- What sticks most in your mind about _____?
- What moment do you remember most from _____?
- How would you sum up _____?
- Match the sub-heading to the most appropriate summary.
- Number the _____ from 1-4 in the order that they appear in the text.

Content Domain 2d: Make inferences from the text/explain and justify inferences with evidence from the text.

Inference Iggy might ask...

- What makes you think _____? Give evidence for your opinions.
- Which words/phrases give you the impression that...?
- What impression do we get of _____? Why?
- What makes you think _____? Explain your answer.
- What does the word/phrase _____ suggest/imply about _____?
- Which character would you most like to meet? Explain why.
- Why did the character behave like this?
- Why do you think they _____?
- How do you think _____ feels about _____?
- What can you infer about how _____ feels?
- Find a word or phrase that tells us how the character is feeling. Explain your answer.
- Why do you think _____ reacted in that way?
- Give two reasons why _____. Explain your answer using evidence from the text.
- Put a tick in the correct box to show whether each statement is a fact or opinion.
- Which is the most important message in this text? Use evidence from the text to support your answer.
- Why do you think that might be important? Support your answer with evidence from the text.
- Find a word or phrase which tells us how the character is feeling.

Predicting Pip might ask...

- How does the front cover hint about what might happen in the story?
- Based on what you know about the character/event, how do you think the story will develop next? Use evidence from the text to support your answer.
- How might this story end?
- Do you think the character will change their behaviour in the future? Give evidence for your ideas.
- In the future, predict how this character might react in a similar situation.
- The character is in a tricky situation. What do you think they will do next?
- What do you think is likely to happen when _____?
- What would you advise _____ to do next time?
- What might happen if _____?
- What do you think will happen to the main character now? Give reasons for your opinion.

Content Domain 2f: Identify/explain how information/narrative content is related and contributes to meaning as a whole.

Cassie the Commentator might ask...

- Look at the section entitled _____. Why has this been included in this text?
- What is the purpose of the _____ (glossary/sub-headings/diagrams/illustrations/italics/bold/large font/capital letters)?
- How does the layout help to _____?
- How has the author organised the text? Why?
- How does the organisation of this text help us to better understand the information?
- In what ways do the features of the text help us to enjoy/understand it?
- Who is the intended audience for this text?
- Which part is the most important section in this text? Explain your answer.
- Overall, what is the effect of _____?
- What was the most effective/thought-provoking moment of the story? Use evidence to support your answer.
- Why have the headings/chapter names/character names been chosen for this text?

Cassie the Commentator might ask...

- Explain how the character's behaviour/appearance has changed over the text.
- Compare one setting to another. How are they similar or different?
- How is the character different at the end of the text in comparison to the beginning? Use evidence from the text to support your answer.
- How have your thoughts about _____ changed?
- How is the character like someone that you know?

Arlo the Author might ask...

- What effect do you think the author intended by using the word _____?
- How does the author make the character/setting/atmosphere _____?
- The author describes _____ as _____.
What effect does this have?
- Look for an example of figurative language [insert here] in the text. How does this add meaning?
- How does the word/phrase _____ help us to understand _____?
- How has the choice of words created a feeling of _____?
- Why did the author choose the verb/adjective/adverb _____?
- Draw lines to match each quotation from the text to the effect it has on the reader.
- Find and copy a word/phrase which explains _____.
- Explain why the author chose this word to describe _____.
- Why did the author use the word _____ to describe _____?
- How does the author make the reader feel about _____ in this part of the text?

